

The Who, What and How of Systems thinking for Health Systems Strengthening in the Asia Pacific region

Agenda

Time	Topic/Session	Presenter/Panellists
5-7 mins	Session Introduction, SYSTAC brief, learning objectives and agenda setting	Devaki Nambiar Program Director, Healthier Societies, The George Institute for Global Health, India
15 mins	Overview of applied systems thinking in various HPSR contexts and reflections on the importance and need for a systems thinking approach	Prashanth N Srinivas Assistant Director Research, The Institute of Public Health, Bengaluru
60 mins	Prospective application of Systems thinking in the context of women's health	Sohana Shafique Deputy Project Coordinator, Urban Health, Iccdr,b, Bangladesh
	Application of Systems Thinking in the context of a WHO project in Timor Leste	Antonio Bonito Systems Thinking Coordinator, WHO Country office, Timor Leste
	Systems Dynamics modelling and its application in the context of Human Resource Planning and COVID-19	Borwornsom Leerapan Associate Professor, Deputy Director of Center for Health Policy and Management, Faculty of Medicine, Ramathibodi Hospital, Mahidol University, Bangkok, Thailand
	Introduction and overview of documenting exemplar case studies to highlight the application of systems thinking across the Southeast Asia Region	Natthawut langtanarat Ramathibodi Hospital, Mahidol University
5 mins	Break and Preparation for Jam board activity
20 mins	Breakout rooms and Jam board sessions	All Panellists
10 mins	Large group discussion and co-creating group norms and best practices for applied systems thinking in the context of HPSR
	Q&A
2-5 mins	End remarks and session closure	Devaki Nambiar