

WEBINAR

Bridging the Gaps in Maternal Heart Health during Pregnancy

Discussion on Policies and Guidelines on Cardiovascular
Diseases in Pregnancy

February 8, 2024

6.30-8.30pm IST, 01.00-03.00pm

GMT 08.00-10.00am EST

Register here

TASKFORCE on Women and
Non-Communicable Diseases

The George
Institute
for Global Health

American Heart Association.

WEBINAR

Bridging the Gaps in Maternal Heart Health during Pregnancy

Discussion on Policies and Guidelines on Cardiovascular Diseases in Pregnancy

DATES

February 8, 2024

TIMES

18.30- 20.30 (IST), 13.00-15.00 (GMT), 08.00 – 10.00 (EST)

Time	Topic	Presenter
6.30pm-6.40pm	Welcome and Introduction	Dr Mychelle Farmer Chief Medical Officer Advancing Synergy USA
6.40pm-7.00pm	“Navigating Cardiovascular Disease in Pregnancy” Key Findings from the Scoping Review of Policies/Guidelines on Cardiovascular Disease (CVD) in Pregnancy	Uma Vasudevan Research Assistant, The George Institute for Global Health, India
7.00pm-7.20pm	Role of the World Health Organization in ensuring standardized and appropriate care during CVD in pregnancy– challenges, solutions and way forward	Dr Abhishek Kunwar National Professional Officer Non Communicable Diseases World Health Organization Country Office for India
07.20pm-07.40pm	Cardiovascular Disease in Pregnancy Guidelines for Low- and Middle-Income Countries (LMICs)–Harnessing the expertise of professional organizations	Prof Dr Liesl Zuhlke Director, Children’s Heart Disease Research, World Heart Federation Switzerland
07.40pm-08.00pm	Role of community based organizations in providing access to the CVD care for pregnant women in LMICs	Marcela Del Aguila Salgado Director of Health and Wellbeing Pro Mujer, Mexico
08.00pm-08.20pm	Interaction with the panelists open discussion
08.20pm-08.30pm	Summary & Closing Remarks	Dr Mychelle Farmer